

Where there's Business in Ireland,
there's Bank of Ireland.

Where there's business in Ireland, you'll find Bank of Ireland. Not only because we have the largest bank branch network in the country — so there's always a branch near you — but also because we support business in Ireland. We have more money invested in Ireland than any other bank.

It's in both your interest and ours to see business in Ireland grow. That's why Bank of Ireland Group has a wide range of products and services to help businesses of every size.

So whatever you are, or whatever your needs — you'll find something to suit you at Bank of Ireland.

Bank of Ireland

For further information contact your local branch of Bank of Ireland

Minutes of Council Meeting, Monday, 22nd October 1956.

Present: James S. Leeson (President) in the chair
John Hegarty (Vice President)
Patrick J. Loughrey Jr. (Hon. Treasurer)
Alan R. Ward (Hon. Secretary)
Leo A. Callow
Brian I. J. Hughes
R. BMC Mc Connell
S. J. Mc Guirk
John G. Mc Mahon
J. D. Mc Nally
Paul E. Rowan

In Attendance: The Secretary and the Assistant to the Secretary of The Dublin Chamber of Commerce (Inc.)

APOLOGY FOR ABSENCE

An Apology for absence was received from Miss E. Beryl Gavin

Minutes

The Minutes of First Council Meeting of 12th October 1956 were read and signed

LETTER OF CONGRATULATIONS

The following Letters of congratulation on the Inauguration of the Dublin Junior Chamber of Commerce were read:

Newry Junior Chamber of Commerce (16/10/56)
Cork Junior Chamber of Commerce (17/10/56)

COUNCIL

A letter (15/10/1956) from Mr. Leo A. Callow conveying his apologies for not attending the meeting on Friday, 12th October 1956, was read and noted.

JUNIOR CHAMBER INTERNATIONAL

Consideration was given to affiliation with the Junior Chamber International.